Statement of Purpose

I received a Bachelor of Science degree in architecture at the University of Utah in May, 2005. I am currently enrolled in the Master of Architecture program at the same university.

Through the two-year intensive architectural program at the undergraduate level, I learned a great deal about building design, communication skills, and basic structures and materials. I am now working at Bradley O. Mimlitz Architects, P.C., a local architectural firm in Park City. This is in addition to participating in the graduate program. I have been given a position as an architectural draftsman and professional assistant. Both of these experiences, studying in the graduate program and the internship have given me a wide perspective in the field of architecture and increased my motivation to study at Southern California Institute of Architecture, where I hope to learn in a completely different environment with a different focus in the field of architecture. I would like to describe the reasons for submitting my application as well as my advantages as a potential candidate for the Master of Architecture program at your school. (後略)

Statement of Purpose

I received a Bachelor of Science degree in architecture at the University of Utah in May, 2005. I am currently enrolled in the Master of Architecture program at the same university.

Through the two-year intensive architectural program at undergraduate level, I learned a lot about building design, communication skills, and basic structures and materials. This year, I work at Bradley O. Mimplitz Architects, P.C., a local architectural firm in Park City, besides studying at the graduate program. I am given a position as an architectural draftsman and professional assistant. Both of these experiences at the graduate program and internship gave me a wide perspective in the field of architecture and raised my interest in studying at Southern California Institute of Architecture, where I will be able to study in a completely different environment with a different focus in the study of architecture. I would like to describe the reasons for application as well as my advantages as a potential candidate for the Master of Architecture program at your school below. (後略)
